Big Bay Access Area on the Broad River to close temporarily for maintenance repairs

GAFFNEY, S.C. – Duke Energy will close the Big Bay Access Area on the Broad River beginning Thursday, Nov. 3, to perform maintenance repairs on the boat ramp launch area. Depending on weather conditions, the work is scheduled to conclude by the end of 2016.

“These maintenance activities are part of ongoing efforts by Duke Energy to ensure quality access areas are available for recreational use on our lakes,” said John Crutchfield, director of Duke Energy’s public safety and recreation strategy planning services.
